Amazing Technology...a 3-D Hand?

We continue to see amazing strides in prosthetics technology. A Rockford, IL girl born without the fingers on her left hand is the beneficiary of an amazing high school project. Yes, this is from our favorite daily source of news, the Inclusion Daily Express. Rockford Boylan Catholic High School, after being approached by the father of the girl, created for about $5 what would have cost $50,000. Click HERE to read more.
